Could you contribute a treat for someone? All donations welcome, food, toiletries, jigsaws - anything goes. There will be a box for donations at the back of church, or give yours to Sara Bromfield or Deborah Carter.

All Saints' Christmas Services: The Advent and Christmas Carol Services, the Covid-Cautious Christmas Eve Eucharist, Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve, and the 10.00 a.m. Christmas Day Eucharist will all be ticketed this year. Tickets - which are FREE – are on 'sale' via Eventbrite now. Links to the relevant web-pages are printed out and available at the back of church.

Christmas Day lunch: We are looking forward to welcoming people who might otherwise be on their own to the Parish Christmas Day lunch and tea at St Mary's. If you would like to be there, or know someone who would, please ring Deborah on 07801 627878. Lots of volunteers needed please to make this event special - there is a role for everyone! Christmas Angels 2021: We are planning again, as a parish, to give gifts at Christmas to our neighbours supported by Refuge, Crossroads for Young Carers and Richmond Resettlement. We give vouchers to adults and young people so that they can choose something themselves. Several ways to contribute: Bank transfer to: "Mortlake PCC Christ Church Churchwardens", Sort Code 60 07 20, Acc nr 03557413. Important: please use the reference: "Christmas Angels". OR give envelopes containing cash or cheques made out to "Mortlake PCC Christ Church Churchwardens", marked "Christmas Angels" to Fr Alex; OR contact Karen Brown, tel 07785 713502 to arrange collection. If you would like to give a present for a child under 10 years old those will be gratefully received too, unwrapped please, so that we can match them to the requests we receive from the 3 organisations. Donations by Sunday, 5th December please.
