Mission and Community Concern: British Red Cross, helping people in crisis, wherever and wherever they are by responding to conflicts, natural disasters and individual emergencies, and helping vulnerable people in the UK and abroad prepare for, withstand and recover from emergencies in their own communities.

Parish Concern: for the Annual Parochial Church Meeting and the Annual Church Meetings at our three churches

World/UK Concern: for all of those returned to public office in this week's elections.

The sick and those in need: Alban Clarke, Celia Viol, Vivienne Clifford-Jackson, Stephen Hepworth, Lawrence Bell-Wright, Hugh Springall, Judy Geffen, Mike Pattison, Thelma Lester, Philip Lester.

Those who have died: Brian Ellis, Susan Campbell

Notices: Please send parish notices for all three churches' notice sheets to Anne Reeves by Wednesday lunch: anne_reeves@madasafish.com . Notices for All Saints only to Leslie Spatt by Wednesday lunchtime: les@lesliespatt.co.uk

The All Saints' Annual Church Meeting will be at 7.00 p.m. on Monday 16th May, with a glass of something sparkling following; please do mark this in your diaries. This year we have vacancies on the consultative group, and as Deanery Synod and PCC representatives (who are also ex officio consultative group members). If you would like to stand for any of these posts, please see the notice and paperwork at the back of church.

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting for the whole parish will be in the hall at All Saints at 8.00 p.m. on Tuesday 24th May.

The recording of our choir singing the 'Prayer for Ukraine' is on the All Saints' church and All Saints' Choir websites. Very beautiful and moving – let others know!

Christian Aid Week 15-21 May: If you are willing to help deliver envelopes this year please contact Peter Halford: peterphalford@gmail.com or tel: 07770 586 595. Link for Christian Aid Giving page: <https://giving.give-star.com/online/christian-aid/mortlake-christian-aid-week-2022>

The parish is looking for a charity to support. Do you have suggestions of home and overseas charities to support for the next three years? We usually support smaller charities where our donation can make a significant difference, could you suggest one? Please speak to or email David Massa, dmassa@live.co.uk with your suggestions or to find out more by Friday 28 May.

Open Gardens in Barnes: Come and enjoy 20 beautiful Barnes gardens to support FiSH next Sunday, 15 May, between 1pm and 6pm. Teas at St Mary's Church Barnes, and Pimm's and saxophone band in St Michael's Vicarage at 39 Elm Bank Gardens. Shuttle bus available. Tickets and maps £10 from www.fishhelp.org.uk - tel: 8876 3336 or from the FiSH Office.

'Showtime in Sheen' at Christ Church on Saturday, 21st May, at 7.30pm. A professional performance of musical theatre and operatic hits with live auction, bar and snacks. Tickets £20 plus £2.20 handling charge are on sale from the website: <https://showtimeinsheen.com> All proceeds go to the Brain Tumour Charity UK. On the door on the night subject to availability. For more information contact Sophie Pemberton - 07884 181354 or email: sophie.burnham@btinternet.com

Climate Café, Tuesday 11.00 - 12.00 noon at Christ Church. This is not about finding solutions or specifying actions, but rather is a safe space in which to share our concerns and fears, hopes and ideas about the climate crisis. All welcome! Tea, coffee and plant based cake.

Team Vicar at Christ Church. We are delighted to be able to announce that the Bishop of Southwark, in consultation with the Team Rector the Revd Canon Ann Nickson, has appointed the Revd Jonathan Haynes to the post of Team Vicar of Christ Church, East Sheen in the Mortlake and East Sheen Team, subject to the usual legal formalities. Jonathan is currently Assistant Curate in the Putney team. It is anticipated that Jonathan will be licensed by the Bishop of Kingston on Tuesday 6th September.

Southside Young Leaders Academy – Today at 11.45am at St Mary's. SYLA is one of the home charities supported by our parish. Charlotte Prendergast, their CEO, is coming to tell us about their work inspiring and empowering black and minority ethnic boys to become strong and self-reliant individuals, positive and active citizens and preparing them to be a new generation of business and community leaders. All welcome.

The Parish Electoral Roll closes TODAY. If you regularly attend one of our churches, or live in the parish, you have the right to be on the Electoral Roll. Application forms are available at the back of church. If you are not sure whether you are on the Roll you can check the list at the back of church.

Ukraine crisis, how to help: The Prosperity Restaurant in Twickenham are collecting essential items for Ukraine: first aid kits, baby food and baby milk, pampers, sanitary items, hot water bottles, ibuprofen, toothpaste, sleeping bags and blankets. Or you can make a financial gift to one of the aid agencies such as the British Red Cross <https://www.redcross.org.uk> or Save the Children www.savethechildren.org.uk, both of which have special appeals for Ukraine.

FiSH: FiSH is recruiting! If you have time to spare why not find out about volunteering for FiSH. Please visit www.fishhelp.org.uk or call - 8876 3336. If you are unable to do your own shopping or need transport for an appointment or something else do please call the FiSH Helpline on 8876 3414. The team will be happy to try and allocate a volunteer to help you.
